EMBASSY OF INDIA
BEIJING

Dated 6th Feb 2018

Some incidents have come to the notice of this Mission, where the fraudsters duping Indian nationals residing abroad by impersonating as officers of the Indian Missions/Posts.

The caller invariably tries to elicit personal information from the Indian national by providing certain personal details and attempts to cheat Indian nationals by claiming the mistakes that have been noticed in their passports etc. At this point the caller insists that they should deposit money in a certain bank account to have these mistakes rectified or else face deportation, imprisonment etc.

As such, it is reiterated that the Mission does not make any such calls or seeks such information on telephone.

If such type of calls are received by an Indian national, he/she is requested to immediately inform the Embassy on E mail – cons1.beijing@mea.gov.in .

Your safety and well-being are of paramount important to us.
